The Joy Club landscape has changed

Canon Thomas Nisbett, OBE, Juanita & Steven Shawn along with Fred Hassell attended the thirty-fifth anniversary of the Joy Club in the St. George's Community Centre.

Fred Hassell and Canon Nisbett were at the launching of the Joy Club in the St. George's Hotel Training School a few yards away from their present location.

Mr. Hassell addressed an audience of baby boomers who make up the Joy Club and expressed how the landscape of the group had changed over three decades.

He paid tribute to the founder of the group the late Truletta Trott and her band of volunteers who wanted a seniors group in the east end. Mrs. Trott was a regular member of the Admiralty House programme, when she conceived a vision for the Joy Club. Admiralty House helped Mrs. Trott organize a committee of parliamentarians, church leaders, and seniors to establish a social club in the parish.

Mr. Hassell remembers the opening of the Joy Club October 21, 1982, being a grand affair with 400 guests including the Premier Sir John Swan and his wife, the late Lady Jacqueline Swan.

Marva Bridgewater, club President, brought the memorable anniversary luncheon to an end by reading a piece on Joyfulness from the Virtues Project, inspiring members and well-wishers to accentuate 'Joy', the club's motto and spread it to the wider community.
